This Sunday is Palm Sunday! Your child is invited to join in on our Palm Procession at the beginning of our Sunday morning service! We'll line up, get our palm branch waving arms ready, and walk through the sanctuary together shouting "Hosanna!" in remembrance of that special day when Jesus entered Jerusalem on the donkey. If your family would like to be a part of this, we'll meet in the Reception Hall (across from the Sanctuary) at 10 a.m. to get our branches and have a quick walk through practice. Once we've practiced a couple of times so the kids know the routine, we'll wait for the service to start to enter together and shout our praises! After the processional, kids will return to their families until the children's moment.

We are in need of 2-3 adults to help guide the kids to know where to walk and to help supervise during our down time. If you can lend a hand Sunday morning for a few minutes to help, contact Natalie Hardin.

THANK YOU

Dear Ladies,

We so appreciate the delicious meal you prepared and served to our family. I know all too well the work and planning that goes into preparing such a feast. You bless us greatly, and it was so nice to have a large, quiet place for us to eat and to reminisce.

Mom was very proud of "her" church and you lived up to her high regard. Thank you again.

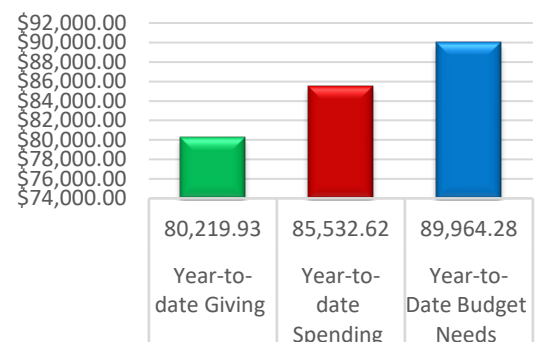

Sincerely,

Connie Stinett for the family of Betty Hamilton
