“Join Us” Sunday!

This Sunday, April 21, we are thrilled to invite all our visitors and friends who have been contemplating joining our church family to a very special "Join the Church Sunday." This day is dedicated to welcoming new members into our loving family and we would ask that you come down front at the end of the service during the last song (following the sermon). Whether you've been attending for a while or have just recently discovered us, this day is for you! Join us in celebrating faith, community, and new beginnings. Don't be shy in coming down, there will be others joining, so you will not be alone. If you aren't comfortable coming down front, contact Ronnie this week and he can announce your desire to join the church. We can't wait to welcome you home.

Donut Sunday is this Sunday!
Join us for donuts and juice at 10 a.m.

Baptism Sunday is April 28! We hope to have many of our children and youth currently attending Pastor's Class baptized during worship that day. If there are any adults interested in making their public confession of faith and/or be baptized, please contact the church office. It will be a wonderful day of celebration and worship as we welcome them into our family of faith ❤️
